

4 Days | Mountains, Music & Butcher Holler

Featuring three shows!

1 BARTER THEATRE • PRESTONS-BURG, KENTUCKY: Travel with us to historic Abingdon, Virginia, where we have reserved seats for a wonderful performance at the Barter Theatre. Enjoy the scenery as we travel along famous US 23 Country Music Highway making our way to Prestonsburg, Kentucky, for a three-night stay.

2 US 23 COUNTRY MUSIC HIGHWAY MUSEUM • MOUNTAIN HOMEPLACE • DINNER AT JENNY WILEY STATE PARK RESORT • JENNY WILEY OUTDOOR THEATRE PRO-

DUCTION: This morning we visit the US 23 Country Music Highway Museum. There is memorabilia on display from such stars as Loretta Lynn, Crystal Gayle, Ricky Skaggs, Patty Loveless, The Judd's, Billy Ray Cyrus, Dwight Yoakam and many more. Our next stop is the Mountain Homeplace. Five original 19th and early 20th Century structures, all of which came from the surrounding area, make up the core of the farmstead. The interpreters in authentic period costumes perform daily chores on the farm. This evening we enjoy dinner and a live stage production at the Jenny Wiley Theatre. D

3 WEBB'S GENERAL STORE • BUTCHER HOLLOW • VAN LEAR COAL MUSEUM • DEWEY LAKE

STOP AT US 23 COUNTRY MUSIC HIGHWAY MUSEUM

SCENIC CRUISE • DINNER • BILLIE JEAN OSBORNE'S KENTUCKY OPRY:

Our first stop this morning is Webb's General Store, owned & operated by Loretta Lynn's family members. Next we visit Butcher Hollow, (or Butcher Holler) birthplace of Loretta Lynn. Her family home is nestled between two fog shrouded mountains up a "holler" just two miles southeast of the coal mining camp of Van Lear. We visit the Van Lear Coal Museum just before taking a relaxing pontoon boat cruise on Dewey Lake. A box lunch is included before we cruise. We return to the hotel for time to freshen up. Dinner is included before taking our seats at Billie Jean Osborne's Kentucky Opry show. L D
