

1 Day | Biltmore House at Christmas

The Biltmore Estate celebrates Christmas in grand style! Join us as we capture the magic of the season at the Biltmore House elegantly decorated in its finest Christmas splendor! On Christmas Eve 1895, George Washington Vanderbilt opened Biltmore House for the first time to his friends and family. Today, the Christmas Celebration is modeled after that first Christmas. See a 35-foot fully decorated Fraser fir, dozens of Christmas trees, seemingly endless garlands, bows, wreaths, ornaments, poinsettias and gorgeous decorations. A visit to Antler Hill Village and the Biltmore House Winery are included.
